

Press Release For Immediate Publication

Regional Missouri Bank (RMB) is pleased to announce its plans to open a new branch in Brookfield, Missouri. The branch will be located at 216 N Main Street. The new branch will offer Deposit, Lending and Drive Thru services.

Regional Missouri Bank has been operating as a local, community bank since 1908. It offers a broad range of financial products and services delivered with high-quality, personal customer service. The continued success of the organization is a result of its deep commitment to the local economic values and its employees' dedication to the customers.

“Regional Missouri Bank is locally owned and has a very rich history of being involved in each of our communities. We are large enough to serve any of your financial needs, but small enough to care and keep our customers as the priority. We appreciate the trust of our clients by keeping their financial security at the forefront and exceeding their expectations at every turn. What makes Regional Missouri Bank so special is our people. Our bankers are your friends and neighbors. You’ll see them in the church, helping with community fundraisers, and shopping at local stores. Because we live and work in the communities we serve, RMB strives for success and financial advancement of our neighborhoods. Our people make the difference and Regional Missouri Bank is proud of their employees and what they bring to each of the bank branches in the communities of Marceline, Keytesville, Salisbury, Glasgow, Paris, Moberly and now Brookfield! Our clients receive friendly, prompt and personalized service from our knowledgeable staff. We look for opportunities to provide loans to small businesses and municipalities, keeping jobs local and business communities healthy,” stated Patrick Kussman, RMB President/CEO.

Please stay tuned for more details on the opening of the new branch in Brookfield!
